The Dialog is the biweekly newspaper of the student body at George Brown College. Covering news, sports, business, technology and arts and entertainment happening at the college and in the city.

4,000 copies of The Dialog are distributed to over 60 locations across five campuses and surrounding neighbourhoods every two weeks on Monday.

Our annual orientation issue is our best value for advertisers as we print 10,000 copies with 6,000 copies distributed directly to new students in frosh kits at the start of the school year.
